

Come fly

with me!

Students will create their own collaged paper-stick puppets inspired by reading selections from "Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird" by Wallace Stevens, then use their puppets to enact the poem, and share their own unique way of seeing birds and words (poetry) with each other. Additional take-home kits with poems and puppet-making supplies are provided for family summer poetry-reading and puppet-making!

for: Grades 1-2

when: 1:00-2:00 pm Wednesday July 8

where: Chatham Public Library

This free program presented as part of "Art in the Library: a Pop-up Program" by faculty from the Art School of Columbia County in partnership with the Chatham Public Library, supported in part by funds from the New York State Library's Family Literacy Library Services grant program.